P R E S S R E L E A S E

Date	May 10, 2010	Time	4:00 PM
Location	1000 Webster Street, Fairfield, California
Subject	Missing Person now a homicide investigation

On 05/07/10 the deceased body of a female was discovered in Napa County, along Hwy 121. The body was discovered by a woman that had stopped on the side of the road, to give her dog a break during a drive through Napa.

On that date Napa County investigators were contacted by Fairfield Police Department regarding the description of the female, and it was believed that the body could be that of our previously reported missing person Phuong Le. Fairfield Police then began working with the FBI to gather evidence at the scene and to confirm the identity of the deceased female. The body was transported to Solano County Coroners Office that evening.

On 5/10/10 the Solano County Coroner confirmed that the deceased female found in Napa County was Phoung Le, reported missing from the Fairfield/Suisun area on 4/26/10. The family was notified at approximately 3:00 PM.

Fairfield Police Department has now classified this as a homicide investigation and will continue working with our partnering agencies to solve this crime. The tip line will remain open for the foreseeable future. Anyone with information regarding this crime is encouraged to contact Fairfield Police at (707) 428-7600 or Solano County Crime Stoppers at (707) 644-STOP.
